

Press Release:

Eleventh Celebration of the Darling Voorkamerfest on 5, 6 and 7 September 2014

Join the Darling community on the first weekend of Spring, and be transported by local taxis to an exciting experience of enchanting theatre, music and dance.

The annual Voorkamerfest promises to dazzle us again this year with a fabulous line-up of local and Dutch artists presenting intimate concerts in the voorkamers of their hosts; the residents of Darling.

The hub of the event is Evita se Perron, 8 Arcadia Street, where festival visitors collect their tickets for one of the seven different routes, each of which takes them on an unforgettable journey between three different Darling homes presenting three concerts of 30 min each per route.

In total the festival offers 21 intimate performances; an exciting mix of all genres - anything from jazz to classical music, comedy to drama and poetry to circus acts.

Part of the Voorkamerfest's unique charm is the exciting element of anticipation as the venues and the artists performing on any one of the seven routes remains a complete surprise until the visitor arrives on the doorstep of the home theatre. Houses in all parts of Darling participate - from the small and more humble to the elegant Victorian. The homeowners are the hosts of this unique South African multicultural experience.

Whilst waiting for the next route, visitors can amble around Evita se Perron and enjoy the Voorkamerfest Craft & Food Fair with an array of food, wines, artisan endeavours and live entertainers.

Dates and starting times of the taxi routes and 21 intimate concerts:

- 5 September FRIDAY at 17:00
- 6 September SAT at 12:00 and at 17:00

7 September SUN at 12:00

On Sunday at 16:00 the open air concert will take place in Darling East.

At this vibrant event festival artists will do a 5 min performance each. Entrance is Free.

Voorkamerfest tickets are selling fast, to avoid disappointment book now.
